Headline:
Often rather cloudy but feeling warm.

Today:
Dry this morning with low cloud and mist gradually lifting to give a few bright spells. Staying mostly dry with bright or sunny spells this afternoon, although an isolated light shower is possible. Feeling warm for the time of year. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloud increasing from the north and west overnight as a band of patchy rain and drizzle sinks south across the region. Low cloud giving hill fog in places. Mild though. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Sunday:
Cloud and patchy rain will soon clear away to the southeast to leave a fine day on Sunday with plenty of sunshine. Temperatures down a little on recent days. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Mostly dry on Monday with bright or sunny spells. Thicker cloud and patchy rain returning on Tuesday. Mainly dry with sunny spells on Wednesday after early mist and fog clears.
